STAMFORD LOST 4-3 GAME SUNDAY

Hamlin scored a 4-3 victory over Stamford here Sunday in the second game of the last half of the season of the Wichita Valley League by taking advantage of Lefty Stallings' wildness and their five base hits. Going into the sixth trailing 2-0 Pippin drew a base on balls and Jones followed with a home run to left and was followed by Rowland's circuit clout to left center. Jake Hollis then replaced Stallings and allowed one run in the seventh.

Captain and Mrs. George M. Roper and children, of Tucson, Arizona, accompanied by Miss Cecilia Pluto, of San Antonio, came last week for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Fairley. Mrs. Roper is a sister of Mr. Fairley and Miss Pluto is his niece.

J. B. NELSON DIED IN SANITARIUM

It will be recalled that J. B. Nelson, who lived in South Hamlin, was taken to the Lubbock Sanitarium for treatment on Thursday, June 28.

At the time Mr. Nelson was taken from his home, he realized he had but little chance for life. After reaching the sanitarium, a risk was taken and after an incision was made, it was found that cancer of the stomach had done its deadly work, and the patient passed away at 8:10 p. m. Monday, July 8th.

Mr. Nelson was born in North Carolina on August 18, 1866, and had reached the age of 68 years, 10 months, and 20 days.

The deceased came to Texas about 45 years ago, and was later united in marriage to Miss Ibbie Hamilton, in Upshur County. To this union there were born four children, who with their mother survive. The children are Robert Nelson of Santa Anna, Texas; Mrs. A. R. Dixon and Henry Nelson of Roscoe, Texas; and Oscar Nelson of Hamlin. It was in 1909 that Mr. Nelson and his family took up their residence near Neinda.

Before leaving Hamlin for the sanitarium, Mr. Nelson had talked with his neighbors, one of whom was Rev. Whitaker, pastor of the Nazarene Church. He made it clear that he fully realized the seriousness of his condition, and said if he died he wanted Rev. Whitaker to conduct his funeral. Mr. Nelson also looked forward to what might happen, and made arrangements with Mr. Barrow to return his body to Hamlin. Every detail of the requests were complied with.

Funeral services were held at the family residence in South Hamlin, at 3:00 p. m. Wednesday, July 10, by Rev. Whitaker.

Interment under the Barrow Company was in the Neinda Cemetery. The life record of the deceased was one of splendid citizenship. Mr. Nelson was a man of high ideals and social in his nature, making friends with everybody who knew him.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Walker and daughter, Zelletta, of Yenangyoung, of Upper Burma, India, came July 5, to visit their uncle, E. F. Fairley, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Walker arrived from India on April 1, in Los Angeles. They will make their home in San Antonio hereafter.

Mrs. M. B. Gannaway, of Austin, is visiting her son, Melville Gannaway and family. Her daughter, Miss Jewel, of Austin, will join her Friday and a visit will be made Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. George Browne's at Antton, Texas.

B. B. Colwell, who has been in ill health for several weeks, was taken to the Stamford Hospital on July 4, in a serious condition. He was relieved of the terrible head pains and was returned to his apartments Sunday. He is still confined to his rooms and may be for several days yet. He and his family during the middle of June spent a number of days in Mexico, and it is thought he may have contracted malaria while there.

A message was received Sunday morning from Mrs. Pat O'Donnell, who had been called to Ranger on account of the serious illness of her brother, stating that he had passed away early that morning. The funeral was held in Ranger Monday afternoon.

Recommendations may help to get a job, but they do not help to hold it.

Travel Tips On Mexico

In last week's Herald we told you about the Travel of the Hamlin Rotarians to and from Mexico.

So many have requested us to tell something about the "impressions" that country and people made upon us while going through and staying in the Capitol City, that we shall try to pass on to you a few points.

Let us begin by saying that because of the limited means of travel, the inability of communication and a general feeling of unconcern, the people of the States and even of Texas have not been able to learn much of a wonderful country and people in the Republic of Mexico.

While in Mexico we were intense students of Mexican Economics — covering a long and interesting historical period.

For one to start out blindly to travel through Mexico, he is making a mistake. One cannot get the proper impression and preparation from reading what to see and what to do, what to drink, what to eat and where to sleep. A person must feel for himself how helpless he is where he can not ask for and get what he has been accustomed to. At first, an American has a constant fear of drinking water and much of what is served him to eat. The crave for water is your first sensation, yet there are plenty streams, springs, and wells — however, you are not so sure about them.

Travel seems safe and it is if you obey road signs, but it is NOT best to travel at night over unknown roads. In Mexico you will find that the highways, especially, the newest stretches are used by the cattle for a place to sleep. That is because they want open dry places to lie down. So that is one hazard.

The Pan-American Highway, much of which is in the building, is perhaps the greatest civil engineering undertaking attempted by any nation in America. It represents a new age in Mexico. After about two more years all bridges will be done, and the roadbed topped, and then the trip to Mexico City will be one of safety and of continuous delight. Today there are but two things to fear. If rivers are normal, ferry is simple on those that have ferries. River Coy is easy to pass over in low water but dangerous when even slightly high. It may be low when you pass over and on the return high — you take a chance, and many take the chance, with safety. The only other hazard is a possible landslide in the mountains, that may head you off for a few hours or days. Landslides are not dangerous unless your car is on the spot.

It is foolish to rush into Mexico, unless you realize you must hurry to reach a place to stay all night. Before you start out, any time, it is best to know where you mean to stop and when. One must look ahead if he wishes to get ahead.

An American should be careful not to show impatience, disapproval, scorn, or speak his feelings against what you see, feel, taste, or smell. Be careful, some Mexican may understand what you say. Just think how you would feel should they come over to Texas and make fun or say something ugly about what we eat or how we do. The best way is to smile, learn the word for "thank you," and use it.

One big mistake is made by some Americans in talking. Don't yell out like the poor Mexican is deaf. He does not like that. He is accustomed to soft gentle voices. If you use English, speak it gently, whether he understands it or not.

Mexicans are a sociable people, and their idea of proper conduct is keen. It is safe to be always absolutely courteous and extremely affable. They like it and your conduct is your "beauty." Look about you down there and you will see hundreds of long machetties, long-handled knives at their sides. They are used for everything where cutting is needed. It would be too bad should they think you needed a swipe or two. Your conduct might lead them to get an excuse. Many big pistols are seen, but seldom used. They are just handy article in case of emergency. Don't ever pity an American for getting in trouble—that's their hard luck.

Mexican people are very accommodating, if they think you are OK. Their offers should be accepted so that you may not offend. They are anxious for one to be pleased. They will do more for you than you can for them. Above all, it pays to be fair and square in your dealings.

You need not know Spanish to get along in Mexico. But it is advisable to know enough to secure something to eat and to make friends as you go, to have some few Spanish phrases that you can refer to. This kind of help can be had at Munn's in Laredo. That firm operates a kind of travelers bureau, and charge but little for their helps, in getting your papers fixed up for crossing and for the needed literature that you will find so helpful on the road. A little study and diligence will enable you to start your deal in Spanish, in a Garage, in Road inquiry, Salutations, Wearing apparel, Business, Spanish Numerals, Time, Barber Shop lingo, Hotel questions and answers, and most essential of all Eating language (better know what you ask, so you will know what you pay for). Then you may need to say something about your body, or Color, or a Doctor. Remember the Mexican Post Office is efficient if not so fast—use it freely.

As to money—you should remember it is unlawful for the Mexican to use any money except their own. However, they do accept American money. One should always supply himself with plenty of small change—that means Pesos (silver or bill) as well as the 5, 10, 20, and 50 centavos pieces. Try to buy something and not have the change and you do without. In all towns of any size they will take your $10.00 travelers check and give you 36 pesos, ($36.00 Mexican dollars. Forget about American equivalents, just remember it takes pesos to operate on in Mexico. If your hotel, two or three meals, cold drinks, taxi hire, tips, and guides are paid for during any one day figure on anywhere from 10 to 20 pesos per day, and you will see what a good time you can have down there where it is so cool (in Mexico City) and delightful, for about $5.00 or $6.00 American money. To enjoy yourself, don't try to calculate in your American Dollars, quarters, dimes, and nickles. Just get a bundle of peso and a pocket full of coppers and silver and watch it slip out of your fingers.

If you should make it through in a car, to Mexico City. Park it in a convenient garage when not in use, and when you desire to "go places" it is more satisfactory to hire a driver guide than try finding the "place" yourself. Besides when you get "there" you need a reliable guide to tell you what you are looking at. Guides can be had from two or three pesos for an afternoon or morning. Suppose they ask you 3 pesos and 60 centavos—that is just a dollar, in American money—what one man or four men would kick at that?

Any literature you may get will indicate places of greatest interest. Need not try to see it all. Don't wag field glasses down there—you will have more right at you than you can see or absorb. The less you carry along the better. The art and relic shops will entice you to load up on stuff like that, and take up your room coming back. And room coming back means a great deal. You will long to hear the happy voices of Texas-land, to feel the modernisms of hotels and cafes, where you feel safe with well kept foods, where you can gurgle pure water, and sleep under fans, and dream dreams.

After a hurried glimpse of Mexico, you will imagine what it will be some day, when they, too, have built roads of high construction quality, into outlying sections, revealing to their American neighbors what a delight of climate, of scenery, wealth, and beauty within a few hours of Texas-land. You will wonder what powers will be brought out from those bright alert peoples who as yet have never had the opportunity of education and enjoyed modern conveniences of elec-

DO A LITTLE PULLING

Want your old home town to go ahead? Then take hold and do a little pulling yourself. Want your home town business to keep your home people well employed? Then give that business your full support by buying your supplies at home. Want your business to grow? Then better demonstrate to the public through advertising, that its good service deserves such growth.—South Dakota Rural Press.

TRANSFORMATION

If housekeeping has seen a transformation in the past decade, Milady owes much of it to newspaper advertising. New ideas circulate fast because people read advertising. It makes new desires and needs, alters old habits and leads people to fresh and better standards of living. As helpful as they are, washers and ironers could not have gained ground so fast without the aid that newspaper advertising gave them. No merchant has used such advertising consistently whose business has not been improved thereby.—Tunkhannock (Pa.) Democrat.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish we could find the proper language to express to our neighbors and friends, our feelings of thanks and gratitude for the many things each and everyone did for our dear husband and father while he was passing through his illness and suffering. We now realize the loving kindness of sympathetic neighbors, and for every act of aid and sympathy shown us in our hours of sadness, we thank you sincerely.

tricity and public services. Today as you travel through, almost any part of Mexico, you will see evidence of an awakening—public roads, hundreds of new school buildings presided over by well prepared teachers—you will see the young boys, especially, anxious to learn how to speak English, and how to carry on in English fashion. With liberalized education and religions, there is no reason why Mexico should not be on the verge of an era of sound progress.

The Pan-American Highway, and the several International Conventions in that country this summer is destined to spread travel news that will mean hundreds of thousands of tourists every year to their delightful Mexico City. This will in time mean more and better hotels, beautiful tourist camps and resorts, where one can easily forget what time of year it is. It's just too bad to leave such a place, whether it be summer or winter. If you go in summer you burn up when you get back and if it be winter you freeze when you return. So, it's a good land to go to but not to come away from.

This will be enough of US from Mexico. A whole page could be typed on any subject.

FIFTY MEN WANTED SOON FOR CCC

50 YOUNG MEN of Jones County will be sent to CCC camps within a few days. Only boys whose families are on the relief rolls may be selected by new ruling since last call.

It is with sincere regret that this ruling was received in Jones County as approximately 50 borderline cases and unemployed boys who packed the entrance to the Relief Office in April had to be turned away—all hoping for a chance to go at the next enrollment.

This ruling, however, together with our greatly enlarged quota will take from the Jones County relief rolls almost every family with an eligible member. These boys should feel deep satisfaction and pride that they can send home $25.00 monthly and at the same time earn good board, lodging, clothes, and $5.00 monthly for themselves.

Transportation from Anson to the recruiting station was furnished at the last call by Mr. Irvin Sanders, Commissioner of Pet. 3, and he has offered the same aid to the boys on this enrollment.

Watch the Local Relief Office window for announcement of the exact date.

CANNERY EMPLOYS

NIGHT CREW

The Jones County Relief Cannery began the week of July 5 with two 8-hour shifts daily in an effort to accommodate producers who have corn to can. The two crews of 18 people each are unable to keep up with bookings which are now dated two weeks ahead.

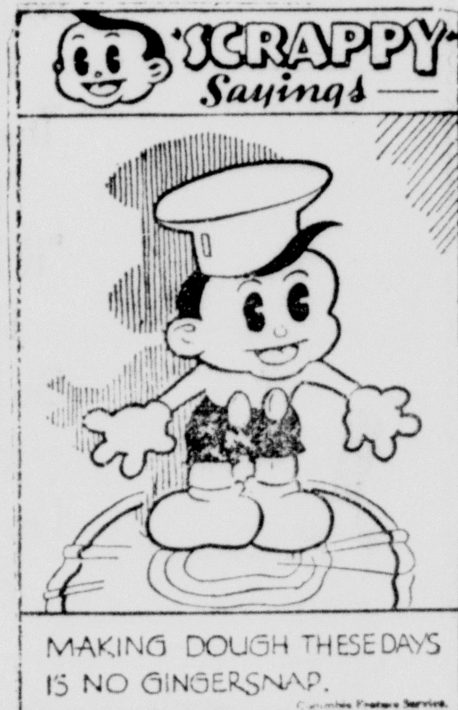

Relief labor is short with over 200 cases closed since June 1st and in order to add the night shift budgetary workers had to be called off other relief work jobs in Hamlin and Stamford.

Production to Monday night, July 8, was 13,268 cans since the Cannery opened on June 7, 60 per cent of which is retained by the Cannery as toll for issuance to relief clients later. 278 farmers of Jones County have had produce booked and canned to date.

Miss Pearl Bristow is Cannery Supervisor and Mrs. Julius C. Heald is in charge of the extra shift, as Assistant Supervisor.

MRS. LENORE CHRISTIAN County Administrator

Mrs. Mary Lenard, of North Hamline, who has been sick or crippled for two months, is better and she now has a brother, M. J. Hamby, of Sonora, Texas, here to make his home with her. He likes Hamlin fine.

LOBBYING AGAIN

We hear much these days about Lobbying around the halls of Congress. Wonder why fuss about it now? It has always been rampant up there, and always will be.

Lobbying comes about by one class of people trying to pass some law or regulation that "nips" some other gang. The "other gang" then begins to fight, and when one side fights then the other starts. So, the urge to pass or the urge not to pass goes on.

Usually when we hear the most about lobbying, it is when the body is up a tree and can't find a way down. Its natural to lay the blame on somebody.

You can not eliminate selfish motives in Congress. Politics is a big factor, from the fact that they must do a lot of stage-play to impress the folks back home. The pity is that the poor suffering public don't know what it's all about, and fret and chaff over anything that seems to pinch their feet. It is similar to one taking bitter medicine—its nasty to take, but the patient does not stop to think what the results would be without the medicine.

In this tangle of our beloved country, there is a lot of frowning because of the medicine the "doctors" are offering and making us take. But can any human realize what a condition we would be in had we not taken ANY medicine, like bank regulations, crop control, NRA, gold control, silver control, and a dozen other things, all of which have been tried. The "patient" who complains these days should let his mind go back to the days of 1932-33 and think what it would be like now had nothing been done, as in the days immediately before them. It looks like we MUST win with Mr. Roosevelt or else go on the rocks with some unreasonable, disrupting gang. One thing we must realize more fully than ever — that we are in a real war where great interests are fighting to hold the forts against humanity, that they acquired in the halcyon days of the past. The future in America is bright to the extent that the masses of our people keep a cool thinking head. But the masses can not keep cool while one or two or a dozen hold a mighty greedy hand over all the rest. That is the crux of the war. That's why lobbying — that's why stay with the President who is the poor man's greatest general. Mr. Roosevelt may be in error sometimes, but we sincerely believe he means to win over big interests and greed in behalf of the freedom of all.

FIGHTING OVER

CENTENNIAL FUNDS

It appears that about a dozen or two town and localities are trying to pull off a Centennial with the funds provided for that purpose. It's a bit puzzling why so many communities that perhaps have a mite of historical interest, should be clamoring for funds to magnify that part of the the-state. It will prove puzzling to the foreigner to come to Texas in 1936 and learn there are so many "Centennial" Centers.

A show worthy of the great state of Texas can't be had in so many communities. The more several places are advertised or magnified the less the Central Centennial show will be. The whole thing is simply to show what has been done in 100 years. There is plenty to show—but as we show the good points, there lies back of it all so much that should have been done, till that realization almost smother the idea of "show-off." Texas is a "monotonous State," and when you see a thing in one locality, it's the same in every locality. The most overwhelming feeling one can have in Texas is its limitless unbroken country and astounding fields of cotton and grains, the every stretching-away roads, endless as the horizon, and the expanse of bright sky, and far-away sunrise and golden sunsets. There is a thrill to anyone coming to Texas for the first time and with one huge central show place, our Centennial will be an impressive thing.

Texas ranks first among the states in the production of sulphur. Water heated to a temperature of 120 degrees above boiling point is pumped under high pressure to the sulphur bed 500 feet under ground and brings the mineral to the surface where it flows into bins and congeals on cooling. The bins are torn away when the sulphur is ready to be shipped. It is broken up by blasting and loaded by clamshell buckets on cars for shipment. Sulphur forms the basis for many fertilizers and is also used in the manufacture of explosives and in bleaching paper.

Our continent has an irregular coast line. It is less broken than that of Europe but much more broken than the sea border of Africa or South America.

My Favorite Recipes

—Frances Lee Barton says:—

THERE are times when the best of families become difficult and that's the time when a touch of genius on your part is strongly indicated. In my family—when these spells occur—I give them something very nice to eat. Cream tartlets with nice crunchy coconut appeal directly to youthful appetites and make a party out of the simplest meal. Ever try surprising the family with a batch of tartlets for some Sunday dinner? It's a grand gesture!

Coconut Cream Tartlets

1 tablespoon powdered sugar; few drops vanilla; ½ cup moist, sweetened coconut; ½ cup cream, whipped; ½ cup strawberry or raspberry jam; 6 baked 2½-inch tart shells.

Fold sugar, vanilla, and coconut into whipped cream. Place a tablespoon of jam in bottom of each tart shell, and fill with coconut cream mixture. Makes 6 tartlets.

Refreshing Relief When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. Churches and Church Activities

METHODIST CHURCH

Knowing that so many people are taking their vacation at this time, it is gratifying the way the attendance is holding up, especially in the Sunday School. Several have brought their guests to the church who are visiting in Hamlin. You like to go to church when visiting other places, why not have them come and worship with us while in our community. Hamlin has no need to be ashamed of her churches and the work being done by each denomination. Our public school system is a credit to any community that compares with this in population. In fact, the churches and school are better than in most communities much larger in population. Let's hold our heads up and carry on for God and a still better community.

We are just closing the Vacation Bible school which has been well attended under conditions. June is the best month for such work but we were too busy then. The enrollment reached near one hundred children. Their work will be on display Thursday after the commencement services at 8 p. m.

Remember the hour of services: 10:45 a. m. and 8:15 p. m.; Sunday School 9:45 and Leagues 7:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday 8:15 p. m. and the W.M.S. on Mondays at 4 p. m. It is just as cool at church as it is at your home so come right on, hot or cold. We appreciate loyalty and regularity on the part of the membership and visitors are always welcome.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworth League met Sunday evening at the usual hour. A good program, conducted by C. O. LaRue, was rendered.

A swimming party was planned for Monday evening.

Monday evening came. A large number of the league members came and brought their lunches and bathing suits. Eleven of us piled in cars and went over to the new swimming pool at Stamford. Being so stacked and crowded, some of us were almost paralyzed after the ride over there, but we managed to don our bathing suits and get into the water.

After the refreshing swim and playing and ducking in the water for two or three hours, we ate lunch. It was a real picnic dinner consisting of plenty of good eats and ice cold soda pop.

Everyone frankly admitted having the best time he had ever had at a League social.

Those enjoying the swimming party were C. O. LaRue, Mina Fay Cotton, Lois Anderson, Margaret Rowe, Ernestine Hurley, Ila Carlton, Adele Watson, Louise Proctor, Oletta Carlton, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Collier, our sponsors.

This is not the last League social like this, so if you want to have a good time enjoying our programs and socials be at Epworth League Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock. Margaret Rowe is our leader. Be there!

Our capable leader, C. O. LaRue, has prepared a very interesting program for our next meeting. "Life More Abundant" will be the topic for discussion by Leone Bowman, Ila Carlton, Mary Lou Bailey, C. O. LaRue, and W. W. Collier, Jr. In this lesson we learn how to spend our leisure time so that it can be beneficial.

Every Leaguer come and bring some one with you next Sunday evening at 7:15 P. M.

HOW GLAD ARE YOU?

"I'm glad there's a church near my home." Such is the title of an article by Edgar Guest that appeared some time ago in the Christian Herald, and he followed with reasons for his being glad of that fact.

Are we as grateful as we should be, have we so cultivated the spirit of worship that we can say with the Psalmist: "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."

Life is constantly confronting us with difficult situations that must be met. How strikingly that is illustrated in the Sunday School lessons this month. Come and study these great lessons with us.

We want every King's Daughter present Sunday.

Visitors welcome.

BERNECKER COMMUNITY PROGRAM

Bernecker Home Demonstration club sponsored a community program Friday evening, July 5, at the school house. Three one-act plays were presented and readings were given by Misses Ellen Bea Vestal, Marie Lake, Bonnie Johnson and Bernice Redwine. Vocal numbers were presented by the Walker twins and Miss Parilee Bryant. Miss Vivian Bryant played the harp and the Ramboe Brothers played the violin and guitar.

After the program Mrs. E. L. Morris took charge and May Walker drew the name for the person winning the quilt made by the club women to raise funds to send delegates to the Short Course. Mr. Buck Johnson, of Sweetwater, got the quilt. Marie Lake drew the name for the person receiving the next article. Mr. J. B. Slaton, of Sweetwater, drew a pillow. Mr. Fred Walker's daughter drew the next name, which was Mr. T. Bonner, of Claytonville. Mr. Bonner received a cake.

Ice cream was served to more than fifty people. Mrs. John Vestal president of the Bernecker Home Demonstration club reported the proceeds from the quilt to be $20. "We still lack a little money in order to send two delegates to the Short Course but the men said they would see that we got the rest." One of the men said, "We will see that Mrs. Walker gets to go if we have to give the $2.50 ourselves."

TILE ADDED TO GARDEN

Mrs. G. A. Campbell, first year pantry demonstrator of the Rotan Club, had 90 feet of tile and added 75 feet of tile this spring.

Mrs. Campbell has canned 24 qts. beans, 12 qts. beets, 20 qts. peas and 20 qts. kraut and has put up 5 qts. cucumber pickles from her spring garden. Mrs. Campbell has also put up 10 qts. plums, 12 qts. peach preserves and 30 ptt. jellies.

Blackeyed peas, beans, cucumbers, radishes, pumpkins, cantaloupes, tomatoes and onions are other vegetables to be found in Mrs. Campbell's garden.

Mrs. Dave Foreman, daughter of Mrs. Campbell, told the Round Top club women, "Mother has canned just plain old red beans and they certainly tasted good last winter."

MRS. TATUM BUSY CANNING

Mrs. Barney Tatum, president of the Round Top Home Demonstration club told the club, "I have canned 46 qts. of beans. My family likes the dried beans but do no care for green beans. I picked two large water buckets of dry beans this week making 50 pounds dried beans already and I will gather about 150 pounds more. I have put up 8 qts. cucumber pickles and yesterday I gathered 2 gallons of cucumbers for pickles."

MRS. VESTAL REPORTS

LARGE ONION CROP

Mrs. John Vestal, 1st year pantry demonstrator of the Bernecker club said, "In spite of the drought and then the rain washing everything away I gathered English peas for several days and saved enough seed for another year. I gathered a No. 2 washtub full of the prettiest onions I have seen and the tub was piled up as high as the onions would stack. My cucumbers are just now beginning to bear and I plan to pickle them as fast as I gather them."

Mrs. Vestal has tanned 17 No. 2 cans of beans and has beans, onions, lettuce, cucumbers and radishes in her garden.

LEND US YOUR gas tank for 3 weeks

*750 did it—

Not long ago we "borrowed" the gas tanks of 750 motorists for 3 weeks.

They bought That Good Gulf—compared it with their regular brands for (1) mileage, (2) starting, (3) pick-up, (4) power, (5) all-around performance.

555 won to Gulf!

More than 7 out of 10 motorists chose Gulf on one or more of the 5 points—and many on all 5.

Gulf's secret? Controlled refining makes it 5 good gasolines in one! You get not 2 or 3 ideal qualities from Gulf—but five.

Try Gulf 3 weeks in your car. We're certain you'll stay with us.

GULF REFINING COMPANY

Q. How fast should you drive to get the most gas mileage? You'll find the answer in this Gulf Booklet, plus 14 other valuable economy hints. Free—at the Sign of the Orange Disc.

Is your tank a stranger to Gulf gas? Then it's time you re-discovered it! Try it for 3 weeks. Let it tell you what a great new gas it is—as it recently told an army of other motorists.*

THAT GOOD GULF GASOLINE

tor of Round Top club told the club members. I have 100 cans to fill with blackeyed peas and 50 cans to fill with corn next week. I am going to buy a bushel of beets to put up since I have not had any luck raising them this year. We ate lamb's quarter until greens came in and there is nothing better." Mrs. Phipps has already canned 6 bushels peaches, 200 qts. beans, 14 qts. plums, 4 qts. berries, 6 qts. jellies and butters, and 7 qts. cucumber pickles.

BUSY PUTTING UP PICKLES

"I have already canned 34 No. 2 cans of beans off of 3 little rows across my garden," said Mrs. A. Branscum, co-operator in Hitson H. Dem. club. "I gathered 3 gallons of cucumbers this morning and plan to put up sweet, sour and bread and butter pickles."

"There are a lot of little tomatoes on the vines and I hope to can quite a few."

Mrs. Branscum has put up beets and blackberries and was planning to get a few peaches. "It does not matter whether I get my peaches this year or not since I have 150 full qts. left from last year."

This was the subject of our club program last Tuesday, July 2, when the Swedonia H. D. Club met with Mrs. E. R. Rector.

Roll call answered—A Statesman. There were nine present.

Seven members and two visitors, one of whom joined the club that meeting.

We enjoyed this discussion very much. The hostess served ice cream and cake. We adjourned to meet with Mrs. B. L. Carriker, July 15th.
